

What: Third Thursday, Syracuse 's City Wide Art Open
When: Thursday, March 18, 2010
Time: 5 to 8 p.m.
Cost: Free!

See this symbol  for special events. Visit th3Syracuse.com for additional information.

 ArtRage – The Norton Putter Gallery, 505 Hawley Avenue 218-5711
BOYS & GIRLS – the art of Diane Menzies and Mary Giehl, two local artists with backgrounds in lives of service to children. Their work exposes suffering through the creative force of beauty. 7pm Screening of documentary WHO DOES SHE THINK SHE IS? by Academy Award winning team Pamela Tanner Boll and Nancy C. Kennedy that follows five women artists, followed by a panel discussion of local artists.

Arts Across Campus, Onondaga Community College
4585 West Seneca Turnpike, 498-2401
Closed for Th3.

Brians Art Gallery, 201 Wolf St (former Keybank building), 424-9663
Collection of Fred Fisher paintings.

Clayscapes Pottery Gallery, 1003 W. Fayette St., Suite L1, 424-6868
Exhibition of Bill Reddick, renowned Canadian international porcelain artist. Reddick designed the Official State Dinnerware for Canada. His work can be seen at Rideau Hall, the Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery, & the Porcelain Institute in Jingdexhen, China.

 Community Folk Art Center, 805 E. Genesee St., 442-2230
Tesoros del Pueblo: El Arte Folklórico de México, La Colección del Dr. Alejandro Garcia/Treasures of the People: The Folk Art of Mexico on view in Gallery 805, the Herbert T. Williams Gallery and the Corridor Gallery. Screening of “Bajo La Misma Luna/Under the Same Moon,” a film by Patricia Rikken at 7pm.

 Delavan Art Gallery, 501 W. Fayette St, 425-7500
*CNY Scholastic Art Awards Show Opening Reception. Continuing exhibit: Art 2003-2009.

The Erie Canal Museum, 318 Erie Blvd. E. 471-0593
Explore a treasure of artifacts, maps, images, interpretive and interactive displays, and the Frank B. Thomson Line Boat, a full size replica canal boat with crew quarters, cargo and passenger areas you can climb aboard.

 Eureka Crafts, 210 Walton St., 471-4601
Meet the Artist Night: Erin Lachut, local artist, author, and illustrator is on-hand to sign editions of children’s book “Tree Frogs’ First Annual Ice Cream Social,” and show her jewelry for children and adults. Light refreshments.

Everson Museum of Art, 401 Harrison St., 474-6064.

that which cannot be held, by Jen Pepper, first installation in The Edge of Art: New York State Artist Series, explores the intersection between language and the body, and their interaction with the physical and emotional environment. Enjoy a discussion with the artist. Continuing exhibits: Tim Scott – The Sixties: When Colour was Sculpture, Tim Scott: House of Clay;

Light Work/Robert B. Menschel Media Center, 316 Waverly Ave., 443-1300
Closed for Th3.

Museum of Young Art (MOYA), 110 West Fayette St., One Lincoln Center, 424-7800
Contact venue for information.

Point of Contact Gallery, 914 E. Genesee St., 443-2169

Alejandra: An international collective inspired by the life and poetry of Alejandra Pizarnik featuring work by Patricia Bentancur, Nayda Collazo-Llorens, Duke & Battersby, Mary Giehl, Damián Roth & Juan Martín Hsu, Graciela Sacco.

Red House Arts Center, 201 South West St., 425-0405

P(un)familiar hantoms, Curated by Maeve Mulrennan from the Galway Arts Center. New works by 6 Irish artists inspired by research into out of body experiences. Curator's Talk at 7pm. Opening Reception.

Spark Contemporary Art Space, 1005 E. Fayette
Contact venue for information.

Special Collections Research Library, 6th Floor, E.S. Bird Library, Syracuse University

Covering Photography: Imitation, Influence, and Coincidence by guest curator Karl Baden

SUArt Galleries, Shaffer Art Building, Syracuse University, 443.4097
Closed for Th3.

SUNY Oswego Metro Center, The Atrium, Two Clinton Square, 399-4100
Closed for Th3.

Syracuse Stage, 820 E. Genesee St. 443-3275

A dramaturgical display in the Coyne Gallery about the depression era. The images speak to the spirit of the time that hovers over each of the characters in "The Price" and controls them to this day. The Sutton Pavillion now houses b/w images of performances from the 2008/2009 season.

Syracuse Technology Garden, 235 Harrison Street, 474-0910, x2902
Closed for Th3.

Warehouse Gallery, 350 W. Fayette St, 443-6450

Jesse Stiles: Automatic Speleology (Window Projects at The Warehouse Gallery and the Main Gallery)

Westcott Community Art Gallery, 826 Euclid Ave., 478-8634

Life's Closet, Acrylics and Fabric by Anne-Margaret Childress.

XL Projects, 307-313 South Clinton St.

"Undergraduate Juried Exhibition" Juried by Lisa Erf, art program director, JPMorgan Chase, New York City.

YMCA Gallery, 2nd floor, 340 Montgomery St., 474-6851 x328.

Closed for Th3.